Dear Friend/Neighbor:

As you know, preparations for the High Holidays are well under way. We have a limited number of seats available, and we would like to take this opportunity to invite each of you to worship with us during this sacred season.

This year, Rosh Hashana is Sunday night, October 2nd, Monday, October 3rd, and Tuesday, October 4th. Yom Kippur begins on Tuesday night, October 11th and concludes on Wednesday night, October 12th.

We are pleased to welcome back Cantor Moshe Udashkin as our chazan for the High Holiday services.

Childcare will be available on both days of Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur (10:00am - 1:00pm).

Please take advantage of this opportunity to purchase your High Holiday seats as soon as possible. To make matters simple, we have arranged for payments to be made, at your option, by check, credit card, or via our website at www.aderethel.org. Online payments can be made by going to the "Donate" section and itemizing what you are paying for. Please use the attached form to make your reservation and payment if you choose not to pay online. If you would like the same seats you have had in years past, please ensure that you have purchased your tickets by Monday, September 12th. After that, seats will be allotted on a first-come, first-serve basis.

On behalf of Rabbi Gideon Shloush and the Board of Trustees, we would like to wish you a happy, healthy, and prosperous year filled with peace and blessing.

We look forward to you worshipping with us during the holidays and the entire year. For more information, please contact the office at (212) 685-0241.

Sincerely,

Seth Gillston
Co-President

Jonathan Grauman
